

APA Membership Application

ATLANTA PARALEGAL ASSOCIATION, INC. an affiliate of NALA

Membership in the Atlanta Paralegal Association, Inc. (“APA”) shall be open to paralegals, students in paralegal programs, attorneys or paralegal educators and any individual or firm which endorses the paralegal concept or is involved in the promotion of the paralegal profession, based on requirements approved by APA. APA shall be an affiliated association of NALA and all members of APA are bound by the NALA Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility in addition to any other code that maybe adopted by APA. There are currently four (4) types of APA membership.

Qualifications (APA Bylaws - Membership)

Active Membership: This membership comes with full voting rights. Active membership is open to any individual who meets at least one of the following requirements (please check one):

- i. Any individual who has successfully completed the Certified Legal Assistant (“CLA”) or Certified Paralegal (“CP”) examination of NALA and is currently in good standing as a CLA or CP with NALA, or
- ii. Any individual who has graduated from an American Bar Association (“ABA”) approved program of study for paralegals, or
- iii. Any individual who has graduated from a course of study for paralegals, which is institutionally accredited but not ABA approved, and which requires no less than the equivalent of sixty (60) semester hours of classroom study, or
- iv. Any individual who has graduated from a course of study for paralegals other than those set forth in “ii” and “iii” above, plus not less than six (6) months of in-house training as a paralegal, whose attorney-employer attests that such person is qualified as a paralegal, or
- v. Any individual who has received a baccalaureate degree in any field, plus not less than six (6) months in-house training as a paralegal, whose attorney-employer attests that such person is qualified as a paralegal, or
- vi. Any individual who has a minimum of three (3) years of law related experience under the supervision of an attorney, including at least six (6) months of in-house training as a paralegal, whose attorney-employer attests that such person is qualified as a paralegal, or
- vii. Any individual who has a minimum of two (2) years of in-house training as a paralegal, whose attorney-employer attests that such person is qualified as a paralegal.

Student Membership: Student membership is open to any individual who is a full-time student in good standing in any college, junior college, community college, or other school pursuing a course of study as a paralegal. A student that has graduated from the above outlined paralegal educational programs may retain their membership status as a student member for two years after the date of their graduation, or until such time as they qualify as an Active Member. This classification of membership has no voting rights and those members of this classification cannot serve as an officer, director, committee chairperson, or member of the Executive Committee.

Associate Membership: Associate membership is open to individuals who meet at least one of the following qualifications: (1) those members of bar associations endorsing the paralegal concept or involved in the promotion of the paralegal profession, or (2) those members of the educational field endorsing the paralegal concept or involved in the promotion of the paralegal profession, or (3) those persons directly involved in the supervision of paralegals. This classification of membership has no voting rights and those members of this classification cannot serve as an officer, director, committee chairperson, or member of the Executive Committee. This classification of membership may be a member of any committee, excepting Executive Committee, and have a vote on the committee, but cannot serve as the Committee Chairperson.

Sustaining Membership: Sustaining membership is available to those individuals, law firms, corporation, and paralegal program representatives who endorse the paralegal concept or are actively involved in the promotion of the paralegal profession. This classification of membership has no voting rights and those members of this classification cannot serve as an officer, director, committee chairperson, or member of the Executive Committee. This classification of membership may be a member of any committee, excepting Executive Committee, and have a vote on the committee, but cannot serve as the Committee Chairperson.

Only persons or entities qualified for membership according to the provisions of APA’s Bylaws shall become members.

NALA Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility

Preamble

A legal assistant must adhere strictly to the accepted standards of legal ethics and to the general principles of property conduct. The performance of the duties of the legal assistant shall be governed by specific canons as defined herein in order that justice will be served and goals of the profession attained.

The canons of ethics set forth hereafter are adopted by the National Association of Legal Assistants, Inc., as a general guide to aid legal assistants and attorneys. The enumeration of these rules does not mean there is not others of equal importance although not specifically mentioned. Court rules, agency rules and statutes must be taken into consideration when interpreting the canons.

Canon 1.

A legal assistant must not perform any of the duties that attorneys only may perform nor take any actions that attorneys may not take.

Canon 2.

A legal assistant may perform any task which is properly delegated and supervised by an attorney as long as the attorney is ultimately responsible to the client, maintains a direct relationship with the client, and assumes professional responsibility for the work product.

Canon 3.

A legal assistant must not a) engage in, encourage or contribute to any act which could constitute the unauthorized practice of law; b) establish attorney/client relationships, set fees, give legal opinions or advice or represent a client before a court or agency unless so authorized by that court or agency; and c) engage in, conduct or take any action which would assist or involve the attorney in a violation of professional ethics or give the appearance of professional impropriety.

Canon 4.

A legal assistant must use discretion and professional judgment commensurate with knowledge and experience but must not render independent legal judgment in place of an attorney. The services of an attorney are essential in the public interest whenever such legal judgment is required.

Canon 5.

A legal assistant must disclose his or her status as a legal assistant at the outset of any professional relationship with a client, attorney, a court or administrative agency or personnel thereof, or a member of the general public. A legal assistant must act prudently in determining the extent to which a client may be assisted without the presence of an attorney.

Canon 6.

A legal assistant must strive to maintain integrity and a high degree of competency through education and training with respect to professional responsibility, local rules and practice and through continuing education in substantive areas of law to better assist the legal profession in fulfilling its duty to provide legal services.

Canon 7.

A legal assistant must protect the confidences of a client and must not violate any rule or statute now in effect or hereafter enacted controlling the doctrine of privileged communications between a client and an attorney.

Canon 8.

A legal assistant must do all other things incidental, necessary or expedient for the attainment of the ethics and responsibilities as defined by statute or rule of court.

Canon 9.

A legal assistant's conduct is guided by bar associations' codes of professional responsibility and rules of professional conduct.
